Description

TERMS OF SPECIFICATIONS
Services of an Event Integrator / Event Management Company
Tourism Development Program – Convergence Meeting
08 May 2023 | Manila, Philippines

I. BACKGROUND

The Tourism Act of 2009 recognizes tourism as an industry of national importance through its contributions to the national poverty reduction agenda. The Department of Tourism (DOT) is the lead agency in charge of the development of the national tourism industry. The law provides the legal framework for mobilizing the support of national agencies and their instrumentalities to the vision and goals articulated under the national tourism plans.

Supported by the Economic Development Cluster of the government, the Tourism Development Program (TDP) under the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) was created to align the activities and projects of other agencies to the industry goals. Further, TDP was identified as a priority program under the Economic Development Cluster for convergence undertakings.

The DOT serves as lead implementing agency of the TDP among various government agencies to fund and align their programs and projects with the National Tourism Development Program (NTDP) 2023- 2028 and submit the Budget Preparation (BP) Form 202-A as required by the DBM.
